

If local broadcasters want listeners then they should provide us with content. I purchased 2 XM radios & subscriptions so I could have choice. AM & FM are still on my desk and in my car, but I ignore them because I hear endless advertisement.

Local stations offer poor traffic reports. I might hear a few seconds every 10 minutes, but nothing compared to what I have sampled on XM. I will welcome traffic when it comes to the Seattle market.

Leave XM alone!